“ Uncle Angel, I salute you, a proud soldier to the end. You, dear sir will be missed by so many. I remember your house on 5th st in MH, your back yard butted up to a church lot, there were little boys that were throwing rocks at us from the other side of the fence, we ran inside to tell you. You came out to see, they ran off like kids do, our hero. I later found out that one of those rascals was my husband Rick, crazy but true. Many years later he put a roof on your house, glad to have done that work for you. You will live on in our hearts through memories of the loving, strong, kind, following the word of God gentleman that you are. Surely grandma & grampa and your brothers (hi dada💎💎💎) in heaven welcomed you with open arms, no more tears or pain only pure peace & love. Our thoughts and prayers are with your loving family in this time of such sorrow. We now all have a real Angel in heaven watching over us. Till we all meet again
