

Asha Chatta

September 20, 1944 - April 5, 2021

Obituary

Smt Asha Chatta was born to Late Shri Amarnath (Tathaji) & Late Smt Dhanwati (Dhanai) Bhatt on 20th September 1944 at Delina, (Distt Baramulla) J&K, India. Soon after her marriage to Late Shri Triloki Nath Chatta, she moved to Dehra Doon. Together they raised four loving children: Rajni, Anil, Anita & Anju.

She inherited spirituality from her Late father "Tathaji" and devoted considerable time to spirituality when she took her "Diksha" from "Guru Maharaj Ji".

Her move to California in 2014 to live with her daughter Anita, in an enchanting and caring environment, akin to her birthplace Kashmir, was the most memorable period of her life.

Asha was humble, caring, compassionate, loving and God-fearing. She was adored and admired by all who came in contact with her. She had time for everyone, held no grudges and forgave everyone. Her warm infectious smile and open-hearted nature will be deeply missed.

Her graceful life will forever be cherished by her children and all in her extended family. Leaving behind her legacy of tolerance and love, in loving presence of her children and grandchildren at her adopted home in California, Asha left for heavenly abode on 5th April 2021

“ I remember the life of asha ji when I was very young and the impression of her marriage with saba ji. I was with her at khawjabag for a night too. Then the time Baby was born at Delina house and got a chance to know more till she was taken to Dehradun and for a long period of time couldn't meet and the only communication was letters in Hindi. It was during Anils yognopavit. and after at many occasion we could see her. During baby's graduation. I and my friend Mr. Hamrah Prof. Went dehradun to guide her for a month. During this time we saw the real nature regarding friendly nature piousness caring silent calmness tolerance ever readiness with out replying . She accompanied bably to lucknow university for admission in postgraduate course so accomodative abest mother teacher friend relationship helping every one socially acceptable and faith in Gurus. Always in my mind. Love from the core of my heart. Last darshan at chandigarh. Though many times conversation on phone. Om shanti shanti om. Omkarnath Bhat
