Danilo Aquino Raymundo went to be with the lord and entered eternal rest on Thursday, March 7, at 4:50 am Pacific Time at the age of sixty-three. Danny was preceded in death by his siblings, Emilia, Patricia, and Marcelino. He is survived by his siblings, Francisco, Isidro Sr, Teresita, Theodora, Paciencia, and Rosalinda, as well as his many nephews and nieces. Born to Maria Consuelo Aquino Raymundo and Federico Guevarra Raymundo, Danny graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Education. During his college days, he was a member of Dulaang Kabataang Barangay in Bulacan and performed as an actor in comedy shows. Afterward, he would work with the Human Settlements Regulatory Commission under Imelda Marcos for a couple of years. He then earned his Master of Arts in Teaching Supervision and Administration and taught for a couple of years at both Ramona Trillana High School (formerly Southern Institute) and Hagonoy Institute before migrating to America. From there, he would work in Silicon Valley's high-tech industries. He deeply admired Filipino history and architecture and was active in fiestas in his hometown. He also loved to travel and blog wherever he went. The funeral will be held on March 23, from 12 pm to 4 pm at International Christian Center, 3275 Williams Rd, San Jose, CA 95117

“ To the best uncle in the world,
I have so many memories with you,
And even though you are no longer here,
I'll cherish and keep them forever.

No words can say how much I love you, You're always there for me since I was born in this world, you make me feel that I am loved and supported me in everything I want to do in my life.

You are the kind of uncle that everyone wish to have and I am grateful because you are my uncle.

You lived well Tito Danny, your life is full of meaning and you really touched so many lives..
And We will surely miss you.

Fly high now our angel, guide us always.
Until we meet again..
