

Eliazer LOPEZ VISENIO

January 19, 1955 - September 5, 2019

Obituary

Eliazer Lopez Visenio, Jr. was born on January 19, 1955, in Quezon City, Philippines. He attended the University of the Philippines Diliman, where he earned a degree in Hotel and Restaurant Management. Eliazer was the eldest of six children born to Mr. Eliazer Visenio, Sr., who preceded him in death, and Ms. Siony Moore. There are five siblings to mourn him: Marie, Bong, Manny, Angelica, and Raul.

Before he immigrated to the United States, he worked for SyCip Gorres Velayo & Company in Makati, Philippines. In 1983, Eliazer immigrated to California. Afterwards, he transitioned to technology, where he worked for the County of Santa Clara and more recently for Intel Corporation. In his spare time, he enjoyed cooking, traveling, watching food adventures, and listening to jazz music. Eliazer was very active with St Francis of Assisi Catholic Church as a Eucharistic Minister and Lector.

Eliazer married, Susan Reyes of San Nicolas, Illocos Norte, Philippines, on February 18, 1989, his loving spouse of 30 years. Both Eliazer and Susan raised four children: Alessandra, Michael, Matthew, and Mark, all of whom loved and admired their father. Eliazer remained in the loving care of his spouse and family until his passing on September 5, 2019, after a debilitating illness. Eliazer will be deeply missed by those who knew and loved him.

Memories of him will be cherished by the family, friends, and associates forever.
