

Frank Gonzales

August 1, 1958 - July 30, 2023

FRANK ROMERO GONZALES AKA Magoo

Was born August 1, 1958, in San Jose California. He is preceded in death by his parents, sister, brothers and his beloved daughter Tiffany Charlene Gonzales his- WooWoo. He is survived by his children Richard James Villegas and Brandalynn Monique Gonzales whom he called Mom all her life, along with 5 beautiful grandchildren Ariana, Jacob, McKayla, Ryan and Hudson. Frank was a very avid Steelers fan. He was a good man. He had a wonderful sense of humor cracking jokes and creating smiles to the end. He was surrounded by his beloved sister Donna, niece Annette and girlfriend Carmen when he took his final breath. Frank was a very talented wood craftsman. He enjoyed making custom canes, plaques and birdhouses. He wore many hats during his time on earth, from working as a carpenter, a soldier serving in the Army, security guard, gold refinery processor, Truck driver, Cabinet maker and many others. He would be better classified as a Jack of all trades. Frank had a caring, fun-loving personality. He was known to be a charmer. He loved his grandkids and helped raise and care for them over the years. He enjoyed cooking. Frank helped to develop his granddaughter McKayla's passion for baking, his little Mama. He loved his Jacaroni, Ariana-Polliwogette, McKayla-Little Mama, Ryan- Polliwog and Hudson. He taught Ariana and Ryan to swim while caring for them. Everybody loved Frank and Frank loved everybody. He always supported his family and encouraged them to follow their dreams. He so enjoyed watching his great niece and nephews compete and win in the MMA ring representing Antdawgs MMA training facility in Gilroy. Frank led a full life and left at peace knowing his baby girl Tiffany was there waiting to greet him. Frank will be missed but never forgotten.
