“ Hey Brother...

This is so hard as I stare at my phone, trying to put my words together. On May 29th. I got the worst phone call from mom hearing her voice so broken to let me know that you had passed. I was so confused, shocked and heartbroken. I felt I had to put that to the side to be strong for everyone. But I know you hear me at night crying quietly, and questioning why... I miss you so much and your phone calls with “Hey fat girl, what are you doing? You wanna come over and clean my house, I’ll pay you” I will never forget you or our memories. Thank you for always being there for my kids. My kids will forever miss you.

Today is going to be real and the hardest because I don’t wanna say goodbye yet. I know we never say goodbye, it’s always see you later. But, really it is goodbye because I won’t be getting that phone call anymore, I won’t be able to go see you and have that face to face conversation and talking shit to each other anymore. This sucks and it hurts so bad... I hope you knew I love you and forever will.

“ Nephew there is so much to say, but i will make it short. I did write something but they did not share it. We grew up together you did give me a hard time growing up but i was always there for you. When me,alfredo and the boys needed you, you were always there no matter what. You where my drinking partner and we were wild together always smacking something. I am going to miss my phone calls Big Worm where are the boys and i would say there are not here. 30 min later your knocking on my door in the AM. Gilbert I gonna miss you so much and those calls from you, no matter what was said about us we still had each other and i thank you for that. Love you honey

“ Cousin... sitting here texting Tina, asking if there's anything I can do or anything I can bring to your services. It still just doesn't seem real. I can't believe you're gone. Who's going to try to cholo dance with me at our family get togethers? Thinking about it makes me laugh and cry. You were always so much fun. And you always looked out for us. From our childhood to adulthood. I was so proud to have you as my big cousin on the double deuce. Now you're with Grandma and my Mom and Dad❤️🕊️ I love you cousin. This isn't goodbye, it's see you later 🙌🙌❤️ FOREVER 22ND STREET❤️ LOVE YOU BIG GIL❤️

“ For my Comadre' Mary, may she rest in peace❤️
I have known the Quinones family since 1980's. I too was welcomed to the family. So Gilbert we are family. My condolences to Quinones family. My heart breaks for your Mom and Dad. I know you are going to be missed by many. Your Tia Mary would always say how proud she was of you and all her family. Victor and Maggie, I love you both❤️

“ My uncle G . . .
I will miss your random phone calls / texts messages. Drinking a beer with you at our family functions. Slappin' Tupac or E40. Loud laugh and big grinnin' cheesy smile.
One of our last few phone calls you told me my baby got his dimples from his Big Uncle G & I told you he got your head too 🤪
Fly High Unc , love your favorite niece 🕊️

“ I've known Gilbert and the family since the early 90's. Gilbert and I became really close over the years. He was a friend I could always count on. When I ran into a tough time in my life he was there to pick me up and help me through it. He included me in his family's life when I needed it the most.

We had lost contact over the years and when I finally got back in touch with him we caught up real quick. It was like we never lost contact.

He called me the day prior to his passing but I didn't pick up. If I would've known that the last time I'd hear from him I would've answered.

You'll be missed my brother.

See you in the next life.
