“ I remember...I remember the first day I met Jose on a zoom...at first he seemed a little weird and distant but as I got to know him I got more and more attached to him. I was always known as...."Pookie"(yes pookie with an H)... I regret not saying I loved him back the last time he said "I Love you pookie"....I'll never forget how kind he was to me...no matter what...Jose was always there for me and I will continue living for him.... You guys had a Wonderful son and friend...I'll never forget him. Every night since then I've gotten on my knees before I went to bed and spoke the words "Goodnight pookie". I will continue to do this until I go to Heaven with him one day...Its me and you....forever and Always Jose....

“ I am deeply upset learning what happened to you. You deserved understanding and love through such a difficult situation when you were given the opposite. You deserved to make it, and I'm so sorry it didn't happen. I promise to become a better person so I can help others like you and protect them. I do not even know you, but I wish so badly I was there to help.

“ I am sorry this happened to you. I wish I could've saved you. I wish I could've said everything would be okay; give it time. To think that kids can go that far because you and your dad were struggling makes me so sad. You are now a beautiful angel and a guardian angel for everyone who needs you. <3

Every time I see your precious face I cry. You are not in pain and suffering in silence. I'm so sorry you felt this was your only way out . Prayers for justice and those who bullied you need to be punished

“ I did not know him but I saw this story on the news. I am so very sorry for your loss. I feel this in my heart as a victim of bullying. I'm so sorry the school and his teammates failed him. He seemed like a boy with a big heart with a lot of weight on his shoulders. I may not know him but I will never forget you and I will keep you and your family in my prayer.

“ I just read the article about your son here in SC. Please know my prayers are with you especially the days ahead. No child should ever had to experience that kind of treatment and my heart is sadden to know that the pain of living for this young man was worse than the thought of being here to continue to grow into the man he would have been all because of how he was treated by classmates. I am so sorry and my prayers are with you!

“ I can not imagine the pain you must be going through, this is truly a tragedy, may god give you the strength to move forward in his memory, may those responsible be punished and may his beautiful soul rest in peace.

“ Jose, I wish you knew how many of us wanted you to succeed. We knew you wanted too also. I wish you could see the impact your life had on many of us, and I wish you knew that we were there for you. Jose, go play with the angels, laugh, spread those wings and fly. May you rest in peace, Mijo. You will always be in our hearts.

“ My heart aches for your loss. No parent should have to bury their child, especially not in such a tragic way. Please know that you are not alone in your grief. There are many people who care about you and are here to support you during this difficult time. Rest in peace, Jose Emilliano Zamora Jr. May you find peace and comfort in the afterlife. ”
