

Lawrence Thomas Booker

April 2, 1951 - June 20, 2020

Obituary

Lawrence Thomas Booker was born to proud parents, Thomas and Doris Booker on April 2nd, 1951, in San Francisco, Ca.

He attended school there and received his certificate of completion for diesel mechanics.

Larry was an adventurer, he went out on his own at an early age. Utilizing the skills he gained, he did a number of odd jobs such as fixing cars, painting, roofing and, flooring .

As the years went by Larry did other things with his life. He raised children, got married, and changed his career to security for his home town team the SF Giants. He met many people there and built long lasting friendships. He worked there until age and years of hard work forced him to stop.

Larry's down time was dedicated to his family. He spent lots of time helping his mother and father and taking his grandchildren, great niece and nephew on outings.

Lawrence went on to glory June 20th, 2020. He leaves to mourn:
