

Lena Kim Fisher

March 30, 1995 - April 8, 2023

"Lena Kim Fisher, loving daughter, sister, and aunt, passed away peacefully on April 8th, 2023, at 28. Her family is deeply saddened by her sudden passing. Lena's passion for life touched many of us through her kindness and beautiful smile. Her big heart was only outweighed by her love and generosity.

Lena is survived by her father Tuan Fisher, mother Phan Fisher, sister Kim Fisher, sister Kieu Nhi Fisher-Nguyen, brother Tony Fisher, brother-in-law Johnny Nguyen and niece, Madilyn Nguyen.

Lena was a fun-spirited soul who took on many passions. One of which included food. Her giving nature found comfort and joy in cooking for loved ones to enjoy.

Lena was a beautiful person inside and out. Her bubbly, outgoing personality would light up the whole room. She cared so deeply for the people around her and impacted many lives.

She will be forever missed. Until we meet again."

“*Lyna, I can't believe the news...
I will never forget the way we met.*

Around that time, I lived close by to a Library on Tully Rd which was somewhat the hangout spot for us middle schoolers. One day, I was leaving the library from the back entrance, and that's where I spotted you and J.T., and his gang of friends. You and J.T. we're dating and him and his friends saw me crossing by and started making picking on me for how I looked, and after that moment, that set you off and made you furious seeing them treat me. After that day, I knew there were a few times you tried to approach me at the library, but I avoided it because of how I afraid I was of being bullied again.

Time had past, freshman year came, we both attended Y.B high school. For a small while, We had the same P.E period with different coaches, we were both involved in Spirit Week, and we were both kinda involved in ASB that freshman year. And I remember one day at school, I was sitting on the bleachers, and you approached me to apologize for that time back at the library and mentioned that was the reason why you ended that relationship with him. We started connecting a lot better, I can remember you being very genuine and from that day on, perception on you changed.

Junior year came, I was struggling with a lot mentally, and I wanted to be more involved with everything.

I remember not really having any friends, and during breaks/ lunches, you would hang out with me in Ms.Lo's English classroom. It probably didn't mean much to you, but it meant a lot to me to have someone who seemed as they wanted to talk to me and I can remember you sharing about your personal struggles as well, and I would always try to remind you how amazing of a person you are. We were both in so much pain, and depression was definitely no joke.

I'm sorry I didn't say hi more during Senior Year. There's a lot more but I'll keep it at that for now.

You're in a safe place now, Lyna. I won't ever forget about you.

Please rest. -JimmyV.

“Lena, you made so much impact on so many lives. I've only wished that others could've met you. I have so much to say, but I hope you're doing well, beautiful. I hope and pray that you've found peace and light. I'm still struggling here with your family and others. It's going to be tough for a while. We'll talk again soon. I'll be waiting for that conversation through prayers #flyhighleena 🙏🕊️🌟 I hope to meet you again every other lifetime. This lifetime was just too short, but you're bigger than the sky itself.

Thank you for always loving and caring for me, and thank you for one last sweetest kiss on the cheek. I told your brother Tony the reason behind that photo, I hope he shared with your sibling because it was funny af. Me and him both laughed. You're definitely a real one for that!

I went back to the apartment were we grew up, I carved your name on the red bench, Until we meet again...

To the Fisher family, I send my deepest condolences and prayers.
