“ One of the kindest sweetest ladies whom I owe so much too...I was an incoming manager when I met Sharon in the late 1990s in Santa Clara. She helped me through the rough times of learning the area. Later after we both were laid off we touched base and worked together again...Always a helpful person....god bless you Sharon!!

“ I cannot find the words to express here what this woman meant to me. We have been friends since 1975. There were just a few years where our paths drifted apart, but the second we were reunited – Easter, 1990 – we picked up right where we left off. Even when I moved from California to Florida, our friendship remained strong. The miles between us didn't matter because we were connected in our hearts. Our last conversation was filled with laughter. I am grateful for her friendship, and I am a better person for having known her. Sister of my heart.

“ I had her for 65 years, through the good and bad, we spoke on the phone every week. I keep thinking of my beautiful cousin and reach for the phone, then I remember I can't call her, I miss my Sharon. I needed her, whatever we did for each other was always unconditional. She would crawl thru fire for me and I would do the same for her. Hope shes with all my dogs and horses, sister Coco, my mom and my son John Paul, wait for me, I'll be there. Miss you so much cousin, love ya. Bobby
