“ When I think of you I think of someone who was always genuine and caring. I think of your smile, you asking me to come into your class and speak with your students about college, scholarships, work, and, of course, you and your students cooking food for me on Fridays at ROP. I remember first meeting you when you taught culinary at North Salinas over a decade ago in that old kitchen. You were always so super positive and so flexible and willing to work with and help any student, let alone colleague. This never waivered.
Thank you and God Bless. Fondly, Brian Preble
