

Stefani Colon

September 14, 1952 - November 16, 2023

"In loving memory of Stefani Colón, we celebrate the life of a remarkable individual whose journey on this Earth touched the hearts of many. Stefani departed from this world on November 16, 2023, leaving behind a legacy of love, kindness, and cherished memories.

Born on September 14, 1952, Stefani spent a lifetime embracing the beauty of existence and sharing that joy with those fortunate enough to know her. She chose a path in women's health at Eden Hospital in Castro Valley and served as a compassionate caregiver for the elderly in her local community. Her commitment to the well-being of others left a lasting and unmistakable impact on her community.

Stefani's warm spirit and generosity knew no bounds. Their unwavering support and compassion uplifted friends and family alike. Whether through a kind word, a helping hand, or a comforting presence, Stefani made a positive impact on the lives of everyone they encountered.

Family was the cornerstone of Stefani's life. She cherished moments spent with loved ones, creating a tapestry of shared experiences and laughter. She married her husband Nelson on December 6, 2002 and lived with him in Castro Valley for the majority of her life. She leaves behind her husband Nelson Colón, children Heather, Nicole, and Ian Boyce, and 9 grandchildren who will forever hold dear the memories of her love.

Services to celebrate Stefani's life will be held on December 19, 2023, at the Chapel of the Chimes in Hayward.

Though Stefani may no longer be with us in person, her spirit will live on in the hearts of those who were touched by her grace, leaving behind a legacy that will endure for generations to come."
