

Victoria Pappas

May 26, 1947 - November 27, 2021

Obituary

Victoria Pappas, 74, passed away on November 27, 2021, in Redwood City, California. Victoria, or “Vicky” to some, was born in San Francisco on May 26th, 1947. She is survived by her two siblings, Margarite Schindler and Frank Pappas, niece, Angela Forgeron and predeceased by her parents, James and Helen Pappas.

Vicky attended Star of the Sea Academy High School graduating with class of 1965 and furthered her education with an Arts History degree from Cal Berkley University. She enjoyed a passion for arts, history and travel. She worked at international consulting agency “Star Board International” for the last several years where she was a senior international benefit consultant, widely respected across the globe.

Vicky will be missed by her friends, family and colleagues near and abroad. A celebration of life will be planned for summer of 2022, while the family ensures travel from all areas is approved.
